SPRINGFIELD IN A FERMENT

ANOTHER MOB OF WHITES IN PURSUIT OF A NEGRO.

Springfield, Ohio, Feb. 23.—With eight companies of state troops on guard in this city as a result of last night's mob violence, in which six houses were burned in the colored residence district, more incendiary fires were started early again tonight in various parts of the city. In every instance the houses were occupied by negroes or negroes and whites. A negro house at Harrison and York streets was stoned by a large crowd, but the occupants are believed to have escaped.

"The Flickers" Nest which is inhabited by negroes and which figured in the Dixon mob and subsequent race war two years ago, has been assaulted tonight and several attempts made to fire it, but it is guarded by militia. Several alarms have been turned in as a result of fires, but no general alarm up to this hour, as every available fireman is at work on fires now under way. Several negroes who had been chased by the angry whites from the negro quarter of the city made their way to the city building, which is in charge of the soldiers.

The house of Rev. John C. Curry, a negro preacher, was stoned, and the family fled terror stricken from it. The mob then set fire to it, but the prompt arrival of the military prevented its destruction.

The militia has devoted its attention to control of the larger crowds, leaving the police to look after the smaller end of the riot.

Bingham, Utah, Feb. 23.—Colonel Herbert B. Catrow, president of the Ohio Copper company, received a telegram this morning summoning him to Ohio to take command of the Third Ohio Infantry, Ohio national guard, and aid in the suppression of the race riot at Springfield.

The colonel started posthaste upon the receipt of the wire, and with full regalia and colonel's insignia.

SNOW IN SOUTHLAND.

Unusual Storm.

Redlands Cal., Feb. 23.—One of the most novel scenes ever witnessed in this town was snowfalling on the streets late this afternoon from an accumulation of hailstones which fell to a depth of half an inch. They remained on the ground over two hours before melting. Slight damage was done to orange crop and to deciduous fruit trees and blossoms. The weather remains very chilly tonight but very little apprehension is felt as to possible damage to crops.

CONDUIT GRAB IS UP TONIGHT

"American" Leaders Will Try to Rush Bill for "Extras"
Through Council.

FALSE STORY IS EXPOSED

CITY MAY USE WATER FROM CONDUIT FOR POWER.

The city council will meet in special session tonight to pass finally on the $75,000 conduit grab proposed by City Engineer L. C. Kelsey and hung around by Contractor "Pat" Moran. It is not improbable that a caucus of the "American" party councilmen and Mayor Thompson will be held this afternoon to determine upon the course of the "American" party in connection with the grab.

Councilman W. Mont Ferry, one of the "Americans" rated as an opponent of the grab, has been forced to go east on account of the death of Mrs. Ferry's mother, and thus one obstacle in the path of the grabbers has been removed. T. R. Black, A. J. Davis and other Moran councilmen will make a desperate effort to whip their colleagues into line for the complete Moran-Kelsey programme.

One of the stories circulated by the enemies of the past city administration is that the city, by the terms of the franchise granted last year to the Utah Light & Railway company, barred itself from using the water of the Big Cottonwood conduit for power purposes. This story is disproven by Section 7 of the franchise which says, among other things:

"In consideration of the premises Salt Lake City agrees and ordains that, during the life of such franchise as herein fixed, it will use the power of said Cottonwood creek, or the waters thereof, for power purposes only, and in connection with municipal utilities and properties only."

Under this section, lawyers say, there is not the slightest legal objection to the city establishing its own municipal light and power plant and using the water from the conduit for such a purpose.

WILL BE PAPA TO DOMINICA

Under Treaty as Reported Uncle
Sam Will Supervise Adjustment of Claims.

WILL COLLECT REVENUES

RATIFICATION NOT LIKELY TO BE HAD FOR SOME TIME.

Washington, Feb. 28.—The treaty between the United States and the Dominican republic, under which the former undertakes to collect and disburse the customs revenues of the latter, was reported to the senate in executive session by Senator Lodge.

A number of very important amendments to the treaty were made by the committee. Article 7 was entirely rewritten, and as reported as materially shortened. It reads as follows:

"The United States, while this treaty is being executed, may take such steps as it may deem proper to preserve order and facilitate the accomplishment of the purposes thereof."

For more than a year this article has been the subject of disputes in the committee. Republicans and democrats were opposed to it, but on very different grounds. The latter, by caucus action, left the republicans free to agree on some amendment satisfactory to the latter. Therefore in rewriting the amendment the committee eliminated the authority given to the Dominican government to demand and receive assistance from this government.

The article now provides that the United States may grant, by its own initiative, such relief as it desires.

Further amendment of this article is contemplated, and may be drafted by Senator Spooner. It is said it will follow lines similar to an amendment proposed by Secretary Root, and will authorize the United States to land troops for the protection of American citizens engaged in the collection of customs.

There were added to the treaty two new sections which are intended to more definitely protect American citizens in all monetary dealings with the creditors of the Dominican republic.

Briefly, the treaty provides for the adjustment of the claims against the Dominican republic under the supervision of the United States. The government is to take charge of the customs house and collect the revenues, pay 45 per cent to the Dominican republic and withhold 55 per cent the latter amount to be used to liquidate the debts of the republic.

While the treaty was given a place on the senate executive calendar by the report made today, it will not be called up until after the railroad rate bill has been disposed of, and even then it may go over for some time. The action of the democrats at their recent caucus has made it very doubtful whether the treaty could be ratified this session. In order to keep the convention alive, in the event of ratification failed, it had been suggested that there might be a motion to reconsider the vote if made, this would be for the purpose of permitting the continuance of the present modus vivendi, under which the customs are being collected. Several other senators have suggested that the same purpose might be accomplished by not bringing the treaty to a vote so long as there is doubt as to its ratification.

JOHN BULL CUTTING DOWN NAVAL EXPENSE

London, Feb. 28.—The new government, having little time in which to frame a new naval budget, has practically adopted the policy of economy already initiated and considered justified by the altered circumstances resulting from the Russo-Japanese war. In view of the destruction of the Russian sea power, the Anglo-Japanese alliance and the Anglo-French entente, the government considers it possible, without detracting from efficiency, to call a halt in the constantly increasing naval expenditure. Lord Cavendish last December forehanded a reduction of $7,500,000, and thus, with the reduction of $17,500,000 effected last year, a total of $25,000,000 is knocked off the naval expenditure in two years. The government gives no detail of the new programme, but it is understood that the projected four armored vessels will be large battleships, presumably of the Dreadnought class. The naval estimates for 1906-7 propose a net total expenditure of $159,347,500, being $12,500,000 less than the estimates for the present fiscal year.

APPROPRIATE TO THE DAY.

(Milwaukee Sentinel.) "You can seldom catch an Irishman at a loss for an answer when you try to have fun with him," said Lord De La Ward of Detroit, at the Plankinton. "I found out last St. Patrick's day just how quick Irish wit can be."

"I was stopping at a hotel where there was an Irish waitress. One didn't have to be told that she was Irish, for the map of the Emerald Isle was written all over her face. She had a brogue that was a marvel and a temper which was the terror of all the guests at her table."

"St. Patrick's day" came down to breakfast and made up my mind to have a little joke with our waitress.

"Molly, bring me orange please," I asked as a starter. It was a finisher too. The way it brought results was amazing.

"With a look of withering scorn Molly stood perfectly still for at least a minute, while I could feel the cold chills which the fear of a scene in the breakfast room chased up my back. Finally, though, she smiled, more in pity than in mirth."

"Faith, Mr. Ward, you've forgotten the day I'm thinking," she said. "It's an olive you meant to be orderin', not an orange. And I'll have it here in a minute."

"And I ate the olive for breakfast."

HALVERSON UNDER FIRE

Formal Charge Made Against Him in Court of Dereliction of Duty.

District Attorney George Halverson will be forced to stand trial on an accusation filed in the district court here yesterday, charging him with dereliction of duty, by Henry Vassler, whose son was beaten to death in a saloon brawl seven years ago. A citation signed by the court makes the same returnable Friday, March 3.

The accusation against Mr. Halverson was a result of some of the charges printed against him here. The complaint was filed in open court by Attorney R. J. Farnsworth.

At 8 o'clock last evening the jury returned a verdict of not guilty. Attorney J. D. Skeen announced that the case would be carried to the supreme court in an effort to set aside this verdict, and said that he was determined to continue his fight against all of the city councilmen who were implicated in the alleged drawing of illegal fees. He said further that the accusations against Councilmen W. R. Emmett and R. D. Faine would be filed as soon as he had time to prepare them.

The Craig case occupied nearly all of the attention of Judge Howell in the district court yesterday. The time was largely consumed by the arguments of counsel. Judge Howell consumed about twenty minutes in charging the jury, and at 4:15 o'clock it retired to commence its deliberations.
